Benefits of Membership

Membership of Green Door offers a range of marketing, sales, exhibition, collaboration, networking and social benefits, opening up a number of opportunities for you as an artist/creative professional:

Exhibitions

- Apply to participate in Green Door group exhibitions (usually at least two a year).
- Apply for an exhibition in one of Green Door's dedicated galleries, fully supported by Green Door:
 - The Brewhouse at Burgundy's in Kendal – ideal for solo exhibitions
 - The New Moon on Highgate in Kendal which is curated by Green Door members Frances Winder and Colin Reynolds.

Events

- Join in the annual Green Door Art Trail, promoted through local and regional PR and a full-colour brochure.
- Take part in other Green Door events and projects – community, fundraising and social.
- Propose and run your own project under the Green Door banner with whatever help and support can be offered, depending on the project.

Networking

- Join group visits to galleries and museums across the North and other social activities.
- Take part in collaborations between Green Door artists, and between Green Door and other local arts venues/organisations.
- Receive news (via the Administrator) of Green Door artists' own exhibitions and projects, plus invitations to previews, workshops and requests for info, etc...
- Join in the exchange of news and views on Green Door's Facebook page.

Marketing

- Free entry on the Green Door website, with image, text, and link to your email and your own website.
- Social media promotion of artists and events via Facebook and Twitter.
